

Summer

／ Ocean Views and Sunsets of The Coast

Gaomei Wetland

Winter

／ Dazzling Nights of The City

Maple Garden

① Gaomei Wetland

A once-in-a-lifetime must-visit scenic attraction world famous for having the most beautiful sunsets.

Gaomei Wetland has been praised for being a “once-in-a-lifetime must-visit scenic attraction” as visitors travel thousands of miles just to see the world-famous sunset. Visitors get to stroll along the beautifully designed winding wooden plank trail as migratory birds take to the skies and fiddler crabs crawl around freely on the mudflats.

Ecology here breeds diversified organisms of both plants and animals. And just before the sun settles on the horizon, the evening sky is illuminated with picturesque colors as it gradually shifts from a dreamy nuanced orange to an indigo blue with glorious purple tints.

📍 No. 8, Meiti St., Qingshui Dist., Taichung City
☎ (04)2611-1566

Taiwan's most beautiful sunset

2 Daan Seaside Paradise

Rich and attractive coastal ecology.

Taiwan's first coastal glamping site, "Nayang Beach," becomes a new highlight of central Taiwan's coastal tourism, offering the unique fun of seaside camping! Crystal-clear blue waters and well-equipped water facilities make it a summer paradise for families. It's the place to enjoy oceanic fun, whether to engage in water activities or kitesurfing, day and night.

You can also visit the Mangrove Ecological Park & Da'an Hygrophylla Ecological Education Park to learn about the unique ecological diversity of the area.

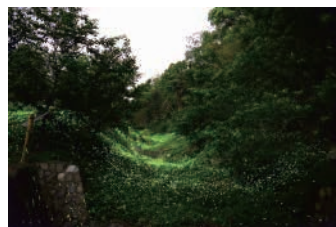

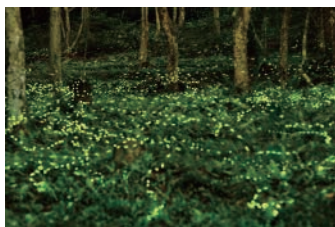

No. 1, Ln. 86, Beishan Rd., Da'an Dist., Taichung City
(04)2686-8513

3 Mangrove Ecological Park

4 Ta'an Hygrophylla Ecological Education Park

6 Dongshih Forest Garden

The Dongshih Forest Garden is expansive and rich in diverse flora, ideal for flower and bird watching. Every year, it draws thousands of tourists to visit here. The ecological beauty, filled with fireflies illuminating the hills, leaves visitors in awe.

No. 6-1, Shilin St., Dongshi Dist., Taichung City
(04)2587-2191

5 Dakeng Ecological Park

Glowing fireflies and dancing butterflies,
Taichung's most enchanting backyard.

Dakeng has long been known as the "backyard" of Taichung, serving as an excellent spot for exploring the local nature environment and observing insects and plants. Depending on the season, different ecological educational themes are available, taking participants to see a variety of flowers, fireflies and butterflies in the spring, look for Japanese rhinoceros beetles in the summer, learn about seeds of different plants in the fall, and admire many blue-tiger butterflies in the winter.

Ln. 383, Sec. 1, Dongshan Rd., Beitun Dist., Taichung City
(04) 25274810

⑦ Fushoushan Farm

Clouds hover playfully above the mountains
as the five-colour maple leaves announce the arrival of Autumn.

The Farm sits between the majestic Hehuanshan and Xueshan Mountain. It is an idyllic landscape unique to the area with an alpine climate that makes for a pleasant visit year-round. When the autumn breeze blows, bright golden, yellow, orange, and red leaves cover the landscape and the grounds. The red maple leaves and old pine trees complement each other as they sway under the sun. Autumn is perhaps the best time of the year to experience the farm's meticulous Japanese garden.

📍 No. 29, Fushou Rd., Heping Dist., Taichung City
☎ (04)2598-9202

8 Wuling Farm

Cherry blossoms everywhere!

The unique geographical location of the farm provides a natural landscape that changes from colour to colour during the seasons. It is also home to Taiwan's National treasure, the "Formosan landlocked salmon." In February, pink Cherry Blossoms and white Taiwan Cherry Blossoms stretches for several kilometers through the valley. They cover the landscape, from the mountains to the vast forests and tea fields, making the scenic view at Wuling Farm during springtime one of the most iconic in all of Taiwan.

📍 No. 3-1, Wuling Rd.,
Heping Dist., Taichung City
☎ (04)2590-1257

9 Dakeng Scenic Area Hiking Trails

13 unique views for 13 hiking trails.

Dakeng Scenic Area offers 13 hiking trails, which range from family-friendly to challenging levels, catering to the desires of all hiking enthusiasts. Walking on the Formosan acacia wooden plank walkways rarely found in Taiwan, you can take in diverse ecological landscapes at varying altitudes and grand views of downtown Taichung City. With the changing seasons, the color variations of mountainous vegetation make visitors profoundly impressed by the wonder and majesty of nature.

Ln. 383, Sec. 1, Dongshan Rd.,
Beitun Dist., Taichung City
(04)2527-4810

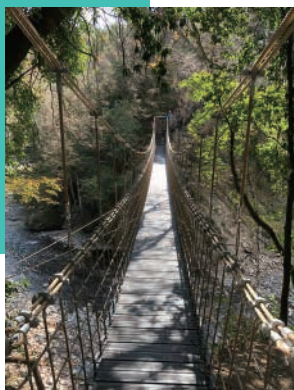

⑩ Huanshan Hunters' Hiking Trail

Step into the nature forest to experience the indigenous culture of the Atayal people.

The trail were constructed along ancient hunting paths used by the Atayal people. It features the remodeled sunk household relics and newly built archery arena, allowing visitors to enjoy the forest's phytoncides while experiencing tribal culture.

Visitors can drive or take the means of mass transportation when coming to the Huanshan Tribe or Lishan, both of which are suitable for leisurely enjoying beautiful mountains and waters.

📍 No. 35, Huanshan 3rd Ln., Sec. 3,
Zhongxing Rd., Heping Dist., Taichung City
(Pingdeng Elementary School)
☎ (04)2515-2575

11 Taichung Hot Springs

Experience the crystal-clear and silky
"Beauty Hot Springs."

Taichung's hot springs are famous for their bicarbonate composition. After bathing, your skin will feel smooth, earning the springs the title of "Beauty Hot Springs." Together with Guguan, Dakeng, Dongshi, Wuri and Houli are called the "Five Famous Springs." There are numerous attractions nearby including Dakeng Hiking Trails, Dongfeng Bicycle Green Way, Zhi Gao Zun Walking Trail, Guguan Shaolai Trail, etc. After a day of touring, visitors can soak in the hot springs for a unique experience of comfort and relaxation.

Guguan Hot Spring Square

1

2

3

4

1. Dakeng Hot Spring
2. Wuri Hot Spring
3. Dongshi Hot Spring
4. Houli Hot Spring

Five major hot springs
in Taichung

12 Tanya Shen Green Bikeway

Cycle through emerald curved paths and enjoy the breeze.

The former military railway that runs through Tanzi, Daya, and Shengang has been repurposed into a recreational bike path. One section, featuring multiple S-shaped curves, has become a popular tourist attraction due to its unique landscape. This stretch of continuous curves is flanked by dense vegetation and tree shade, creating a beautiful scene where the path and branches each make up half of the view, complementing each other perfectly.

📍 No. 1-2, Sect 3, Zhongshan Rd.,
Tanzi Dist., Taichung City
☎ (04)-2515-2575

13 Seaside Bikeway

Riding a bike to appreciate the beauty of the coastline.

Starting from Miaoli's Green Light Sea Breeze Bicycle Path in the north, cyclists can travel from Dajia's coastline all the way to Wuri before entering Changhua. The northern end of the bike path, adjacent to the coastline in the Da'an section, offers views of the coastal scenery and wetland ecosystems. Heading south, the path passes through Wuqi Fishing Port and Gaomei Bike Path, where you can feast on seafood and admire the sunset. It's the best way to experience marine culture and have some leisurely time.

Start/Dadu Bridge (At the junction with Changhua County)
End/Changshou Rd. (At the junction with Miaoli City)
(04) 2515-2575

15 Ao-Feng Hill Park

Artistic recreational facilities such as Supernova spinner, Worm Square and Spider Playground make it the best playgrounds for families. The park also covers a vast area and offers abundant natural scenery. The beautiful sunset and night views seen from the observation deck are very amazing.

📍 No. 100, Aohai Rd., Qingshui Dist.,
Taichung City
☎ (04)2228-9111

X-Game Playground, Ao-Feng Hill Park

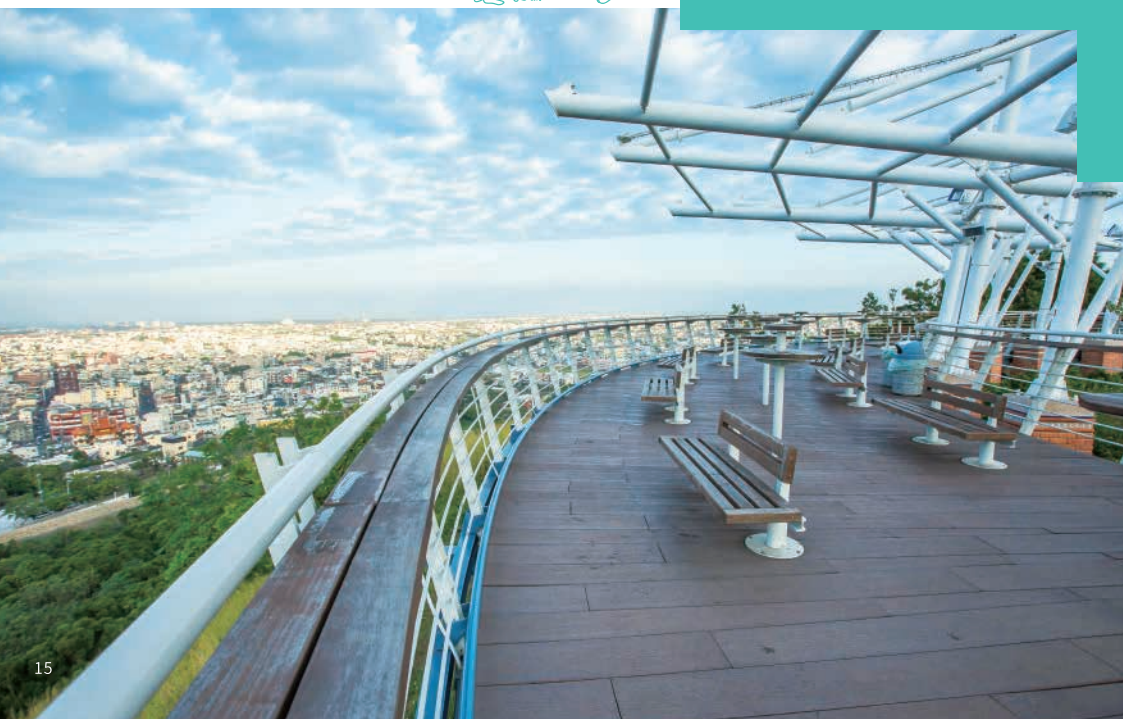

14 Tiezhenshan Scenic Area

Named for its resemblance to a giant anvil when viewed from afar, Tiezhenshan offers a flat area of several square kilometers at its peak. In recent years, focusing on themes like family inclusivity, culture and history, natural landscapes, and sports and camping, it has become a multi-functional recreational area complete with a sculpture plaza, family park, barbecue area, and hiking trails. The legendary Sword Well is open to the public every Dragon Boat Festival, offering noon-time water as amulets, which is an important folk event in the coastline of Taichung.

📍 No. 221, Chenggong Rd., Dajia Dist.,
Taichung City
☎ (04)2687-4543

Feeling in touch with nature

16 Botanical Garden of the National Museum of Natural Science

A jaw-dropping rainforest in the heart of Taichung. Eight ecological regions of Taiwan under one glass ceiling.

This mini tropical jungle is hidden away within the bustling city center. Featuring Taiwan's characteristic ecological regions and tropical rainforests, Taichung's little indoor rainforest, as we like to call it, is home to more than 800 species of low-altitude plants native to Taiwan. Discover the extraordinary rainforest greenhouse and its dramatic landscape designs; high-reaching trees, riverine rainforests and rainforest beds. The huge pearlescent swallowtail butterfly installation at the entrance is a landmark known to all Taichung residents. So why not go on a jungle adventure – minutes' walk from the City center.

📍 No. 1, Guanqian Rd., North Dist., Taichung City
☎ (04)2322-6940

17 Maple Garden

Asia's first recessed ecological park, tranquil urban oasis.

"Maple Garden" has a name far more poetic in Chinese, "Autumn Red Valley." Located amidst the bustling high-rise clusters in Taichung, it features ecological lakes, trees whose leaves change colors in the fall, and landscape bridges. The moment you step into the Garden, you are leaving the bustling, crowded city behind, and entering a serene urban forest, where you can admire everything in a leisurely manner.

📍 No. 30, Chaoma Rd., Xitun Dist., Taichung City
☎ (04)2228-9111

18 Central Park

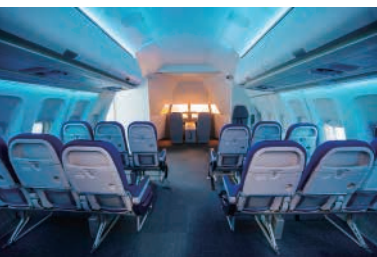

The first gigantic urban ecology park in Taichung.

Known as the "lung of Taichung," Taichung Central Park boasts 12 thousand trees that show a variety of seasonal beauty, offering a verdant oasis in the city. It is installed with 12 world-leading sensory interactive facilities, such as the Vision Field, the Touch Field and the Smile field. The visitor center even features a 737 passenger aircraft cabin, creating a flying experience zone where you can fully immerse yourself in the ambiance of traveling abroad. Whether it's the expansive forest ecosystem or the innovative landscape architectural designs, one can deeply feel the ceaseless vitality and creativity present.

No. 2966, Zhongke Rd., Xitun Dist., Taichung City
(04)3704-8955

The Speech Field & Kenan-Aiqin Bridge

Featured Flight Hall
(Taichung Central Park Visitor Center)

The Vision Field

The Speech Field

19 Gonglao Ping

In Fengyuan's Gong Lao Ping, mountain-side scenic restaurant and cafe make this the perfect dating spot for couples. Wang Gao Liao is situated at a strategic point on Dadu Plateau, offering a sweeping 180-degree view of Taichung Harbor, the downtown area, and Wu River. As dusk falls, the sky turns from blue to the pale hue of a fish's belly. The setting sun casts several shades of orange-yellow, and countless lights twinkle against the dark blue night sky. The ever-changing night views of Taichung are unforgettable.

Shuiyuan Rd., Fengyuan Dist., Taichung City
(04)2228-9111

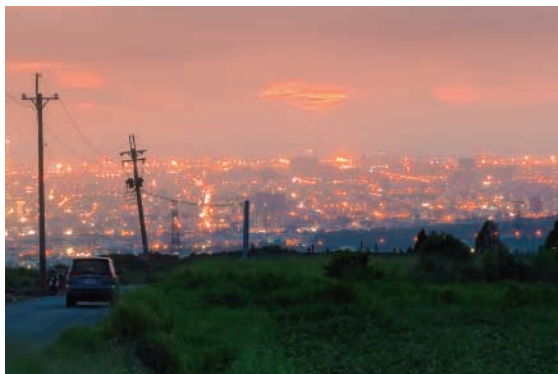

Enjoy the breathtaking night view from the hills

20 Wanggaoliao

Zhongtai Rd., Nantun Dist.,
Taichung City
(04)2228-9111

21 Night view of the Yue-Lao Temple

The Yue-Lao Temple is located on a rural road between Daya and Shalu where you can overlook the downtown area. The orange-red setting sun and twinkling streetlights complement each other, weaving together with the skyline of Taichung Harbor to create a splendid night scene.

75 Rural Highway Shalu Dist.,
Taichung City
(04)2228-9111

The arising street lights
create a glamorous night views on the roadways

22 Dadu Blue Highway

On this stretch of highway in Dadu, both sides are dotted with bluish-purple cold-light street lamps, resembling a string of sapphires and hence named the "Blue Highway." Due to the undulating terrain like ocean waves, it offers a winding yet seemingly endlessly extending surreal visual effect.

Dadu Blue Highway
Dadu Dist., Taichung City
(04)2228-9111

Guguan Map

Lishan Map

